

Breaking the silence: Acknowledging sexual violence against men and boys in conflict

U.N. MEMBER STATES [193]

U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL 7938TH MEETING OPEN DEBATE ON SEXUAL VIOLENCE IN CONFLICT MAY 15TH 2017

1. Sexual violence against men and boys has been documented by the U.N. in the following countries: Afghanistan, Argentina, BiH, Cambodia, CAR, Colombia, Croatia, Chile, DRC, Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Kenya, Kosovo, Kuwait, Libya, Republic of Iraq, Rwanda, Serbia, Sierra Leone, South Africa, South Sudan, Sri Lanka, Syrian Arab Republic, Uganda, Ukraine. See, Sandesh Sivakumaran, "Sexual Conflict Against Men in Armed Conflict" in The European Journal of International Law, Vol. 18 no.2, 2007, 258-259 <http://ejil.org/pdfs/18/2/224.pdf>; All Survivors Project, 'UN and National reports'; <http://allsurvivorsproject.org/reports/>.

2. Sexual violence against men and boys has also been documented by other sources in Burundi, People's Republic of China, El Salvador, Greece, Liberia, Russian Federation (Chechnya), Sudan, Turkey, UK (Northern Ireland), Zimbabwe. See, Sandesh Sivakumaran, "Sexual Conflict Against Men in Armed Conflict" in The European Journal of International Law, Vol. 18 no.2, 2007, 258-259 <http://ejil.org/pdfs/18/2/224.pdf>.

3. Sexual violence against men and boys was mentioned during the UNSC 7938th meeting by Albania, Argentina, Cambodia, Canada, Costa Rica, EU, France, Hungary, Israel, Japan, Liechtenstein, Maldives, Mexico, Morocco, Netherlands, South Africa, Switzerland, UK, Ukraine Uruguay, US. See, Sexual violence in conflict - Security Council, 7938th meeting, <http://webtv.un.org/search/part-1-sexual-violence-in-conflict-security-council-7938th-meeting/5435653565001?term=sexual%20violence%20in%20conflict>